

Illinois Freedom of Information Act

Information about the Chicago Teachers' Pension Fund (“CTPF” or “Fund”) pursuant to 5 ILCS 140/4

Mission Statement:

To provide, protect, and enhance the present and future economic well-being of members, pensioners and beneficiaries through efficient and effective management of benefit programs, investment practices and customer service, and to commit to earning and keeping the respect and trust of the participants through quality service and by protecting retirement benefits, in compliance with applicable laws and standards.

Functional Subdivisions: (see attached diagram)

CTPF Operating Budget for FY 20: $24,013,600*

CTPF Office:

425 S. Financial Place
Suite 1400
Chicago, IL 60605

Number of CTPF Employees:

As of January 13, 2020 CTPF has 117 employees and 14 of them are part-time.

Governing Board:

CTPF Board of Trustees

CTPF FOIA Officer:

Daniel J. Hurtado
Chief Legal Officer
CTPF
425 S. Financial Place
Suite 1400
Chicago, IL 60605
FOIAofficer@ctpf.org

Photocopy cost for FOIA requests:

No fees shall be charged for the first 50 pages of black and white. The fee for black and white copies shall not exceed 15 cents per page.

*This amount does not include investment management fees or expenses associated with the relocation of CTPF office

Information Publicly and Immediately Available from CTPF

Detailed information about CTPF is available on the CTPF website. The CTPF website provides information that includes staff and board contact information, purpose, member resources, key statutory provisions, benefits, funding, administrative structure and budget, comprehensive annual financial reports, member brochures and publications on a variety of topics of interest to CTPF members, employer services, legislative matters, investments, board meeting notices and agendas, meeting minutes, administrative rules, an online press release section, and vendor information.

Organizational Chart

